

Home heat map

Be safe and secure in your home.

Home means so many things to you. Family and fond memories may come immediately to mind. However, as you age, you may need to adapt your space to meet new needs. Chores, to-dos, and minor home repairs— things that were once routine aspects of home ownership—can now pose new challenges to your safety and well-being.

By connecting with one of our counselors, we can suggest best-fit modifications and classes to prevent falls, or connect you to a trusted provider.

Enter a clutter-free zone

Keep your living space spick and span and your path clear with light housekeeping assistance.

Shine a light on hazards

Keep your place bright, cheery, and trip-hazard free. We can connect you with a provider who will conduct a home safety inspection.

Connect with in-home services to adapt your home.

Learn more at www.empowerline.org/aging-in-place

Relax and rest easy

Keep your bedroom a place of relaxation by installing good lighting and securing floor furnishings.

Stay fresh and clean

Keep your bathroom accessible by installing grab bars or shower chairs. And if you need assistance with your personal care, we can connect you with a trusted provider.

